

EVERY DAY WITH JESUS back copies

Dear folks.

I have 70 or more back copies of these Bible reading notes spanning over 26 years which are available for use by anyone who is interested. I hope there will be more to follow.

They are in the form of small booklets containing daily readings (one page per day) covering a two-month period. Each issue follows a particular theme, and for each day there is a designated Bible reading with an inspiring commentary by the Rev. Dr. Selwyn Hughes, a pastor and Bible teacher from the Welsh valleys who instigated the scheme which he began in the 1960's, first as a devotional aid for his congregation, and subsequently as a regular periodical published by Crusade for World Revival (CWR), a Christian training and publishing organisation that he founded.

Each page also makes suggestions for further Bible readings on the same subject, and includes a short prayer.

Using EVERY DAY WITH JESUS has been greatly significant over the years to my spiritual growth, my knowledge and understanding of the Scriptures and of my relationship with God. I cannot recommend it too strongly as a means of becoming and remaining closer to Him and learning how to walk with Him.

It enables you to:

- get practical help with life's challenges
- gain insight into the deeper truths of Scripture
- be challenged, comforted and encouraged

Anyone is welcome to take and use any of these issues, whose titles I have listed along with the themes covered. I am happy to let you have a copy of this if requested.

The booklets can be found on the shelves underneath the church library cupboard in the kitchen area. They are arranged in date order and the box containing them also has a copy of the list for you to browse and select an issue you would like to use and keep, return, or pass on to someone else.

If possible, please indicate in writing on the list to show that the book has been taken, to save others searching in vain. Thank you.

Phil Eley
