From the Vicarage

Dear Friends

Lent and Easter are very early this year with Palm Sunday on 29 March and Easter Day on 5 April. Our gardens seem to be especially early too with daffodils already at the Vicarage and we are only in mid February!

Lent is traditionally a time for Christians to spend time fasting, praying and giving time to God – changing our routines and habits to accommodate such shifts can feel awkward and so many do nothing. But this is a time that God gives us to spend time with Him, an opportunity we also have in Advent but which can feel nigh on impossible with all the pressures of Christmas. So what stops us from using Lent wisely?

Before Jesus started His ministry he spent 40 days and nights in the dessert, with no food or drink, relying on God for everything. And when, at the end He was 'very hungry', Satan swooped in to tempt Him away from His calling. He was tempted to use His gifts to assuage His own hunger. Tempted to call on God as His own whim. Tempted with all wordly power and authority if He left God behind and worshipped Satan.

We do not have the same temptations dangled in front of us – and not eating chocolate for a few weeks seems very feeble in comparison. So what could you DO instead that would invest in your relationship with God? Rejoice in 'glimpses of glory' God may share with you each day – maybe a picture of something unexpected or beautiful, a kind word or gesture, time with a friend or someone who needs encouraging? You could choose to read daily a chapter of a particular book of the Bible, or a Gospel from beginning to end. You could just spend time in quiet, giving God space to speak rather than listing your requests.

My encouragement would be to write down what you intend to do and put it somewhere you see daily – in your Bible, on the fridge, even next to your toothbrush. And then do it. Commit to do it daily and as you do, ask God to show you what He wants you to know this Lent.

Yours in Christ

Alicia

Archdeacon's Inspection

Archdeacon Matthew Trick visited St Peter's in early February to inspect our paperwork, take a look at the building and discuss the challenges and plans for mission and ministry in the parish. Inspections are usually every five years and are not like OFSTEAD but rather an opportunity to ensure that churches are equipped appropriately.

Accompanied by Area Dean Sarah Watson they spent nearly two hours at St Peter's before we travelled to Findern to support warden Pat Maddock with their inspection. A huge thank you to Iona, the wardens and the Fabric Team for ensuring everything was in place, ship-shape and Bristol fashion.

We then went to Willington Marina for lunch where we chatted together over delicious food on the Boat Street Café. Archdeacon Matthew and Area Dean Sarah pictured by our lunch venue.

Easter Services – early this year

This year, Easter is much earlier with Palm Sunday on 29 March and Easter Day on 5 April. Schools will break up on Friday 27 March, meaning Holy Week follows on immediately. As usual, Holy Week meditations will be shared across the churches in Littleover and we hope you will attend as many as possible as part of your Holy Week journey.

It is important that we move from the joy of Palm Sunday, down into the horror of Good Friday before we rejoice together at Christ's resurrection on Easter Day. The joy of the resurrection must always be set against the backdrop of the Crucifixion, so that we can fully appreciate what Christ has done for us.

Jean Burgess – Bishop of Grimsby

Jean Burgess who was a member of St Peter's until 2003 and her ordination, was consecrated Bishop of Grimsby at a service at Southwark Cathedral in London on 6 February. Friends from St Peter's and her wider ministry in Derby were there to celebrate with Jean and her family (including former St Peter's Curate, Phyllis Bainbridge). The service was led by Archbishop Stephen Cottrell, and was assisted by Bishop of Derby Libby Lane. There was a reception for guests afterwards at Lambeth Palace.

Creation Care

God calls us to Care for Creation

The Climate and Nature Bill's focus is upon restoring ecosystems and safeguarding biodiversity. The Bill would require the UK Government to reduce greenhouse gas emissions in line with the Paris Agreement and halt and reverse biodiversity loss under the Global Biodiversity Framework, supported by a national strategy shaped with public input through a Climate and Nature Assembly. Its overall aim is to deliver a scientifically credible, plan for addressing the climate–nature emergency.

Climate change disproportionately harms vulnerable people — through extreme weather, food insecurity, and displacement from their homes. Actions that reduce greenhouse gas emissions and protect nature, are opportunities to address environmental injustices.

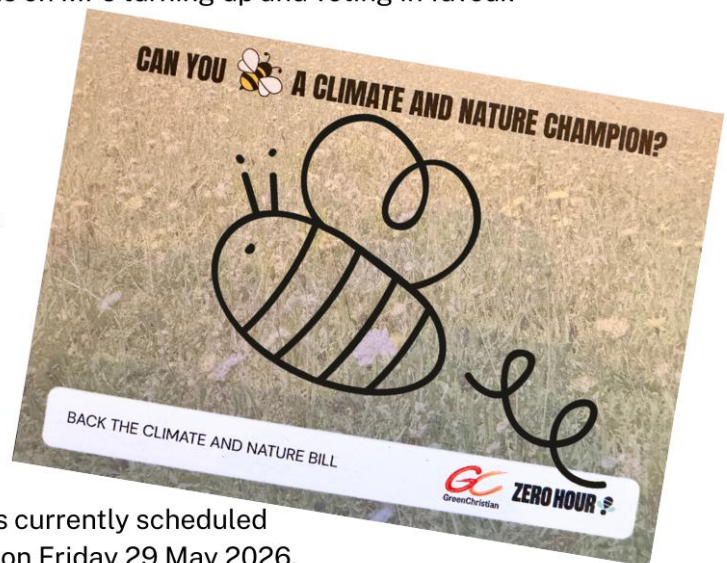

A Rocha UK strongly supports the Climate and Nature Bill (CAN Bill). It has backed the Zero Hour campaign since its inception and joins with more than 180 organisations, faith leaders, scientists, and politicians calling for its passage.

A key part of A Rocha's message is public mobilisation, calling upon citizens to write to the Prime Minister and MPs. The Bill's progress depends on MPs turning up and voting in favour.

Green Christian's Bee a Climate and Nature Champion activity is a creative activity to support writing to the Prime Minister and your MP. Join us on Sunday 1 March to share in our activity at the All-Age Worship Service in St Peter's Hub.

“God calls us to care for creation”. Ahead of parliamentary debates, please pray and act. That sometimes requires Christians to use their voices to call others — especially MPs — to act responsibly.

The Climate and Nature (CAN) Bill 2024-26 is currently scheduled for its adjourned second reading to continue on Friday 29 May 2026.

Please urge your MP to:

- Support the Climate and Nature Bill, ensuring the Government is legally required to deliver a credible, science-based strategy for limiting global warming and climate change, and restoring nature
- Advocate for strong climate and nature targets, including halting and reversing nature loss.
- Engage constructively with groups campaigning for climate–nature legislation.

General Synod February 2026 Report

Alicia has been a member of General Synod – the ruling group for the Church of England – since 2020 and she will not be standing for the next quinquennium (five year period of business) at the elections this summer. Here she shares some of her reflections from Synod in February, which met at Church House, Westminster.

Welcoming Dame Sarah Mullay as the new Archbishop of Canterbury

The Archbishop of York announced Sarah as the new ABC at the opening session of business and she was greeted with prolonged applause and a standing ovation (by most of Synod). Some members of Synod do not recognise the ordination of women, or that women should be in a leadership role over men. For these people, to have the leader of the Church of England as a woman, is very difficult. While we may not agree with their perspective, the Anglican church is sufficiently flexible to permit a wide range of views.

In her Presidential Address she said: “(But) when the wind and the waves are rocking the boat, I am reminded that what I need to do is to focus on Christ, who calms the waters and stills the wind. With your help and with God’s grace, I pray that I am able to approach this ministry with calm, consistency and compassion – as we seek to be what the Church has for so long been: a stable presence in an unstable world.”

Safeguarding – a way forward

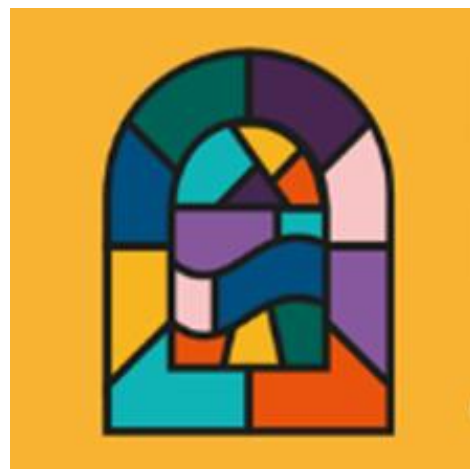

How we manage safeguarding has become a hot topic in recent years and the Archbishop’s Council has made some big mistakes in how situations were handled – leading to the resignation of our previous Archbishop, Justin Welby. A new strategy was proposed to rebuild trust and deliver professional, independent safeguarding across the Church of England. At the core of the reforms is the creation of a new national safeguarding charity. This organisation will operate independently of Church hierarchy, governed by a majority-independent Board. It is hoped that this will ensure greater independence of professional safeguarding decisions which will be entirely independent of Church leadership.

Sustainable Church Flowers

Synod backed a Diocesan Synod Motion from the Diocese of Worcester encouraging churches and cathedrals to explore ways of arranging flowers that are both beautiful and environmentally responsible. The motion does not introduce any rules or bans. Instead, it encourages churches, wherever possible, to consider using seasonal, locally sourced flowers and foliage, and to phase out single-use floral foam - a 1950s-era plastic product which cannot be recycled or composted, sheds micro-particles when handled, and contains the equivalent of up to ten carrier bags' worth of plastic per block. The Royal Horticultural Society has already prohibited floral foam at its shows, including Chelsea, since 2021.

Living in Love and Faith – what does the future hold?

Living in Love and Faith or LLF was originally set up in 2017 to explore the Church's approach to identity, sexuality, relationships and marriage. It led to the introduction, following a key Synod vote in 2023, of public prayers of dedication and thanksgiving for same-sex couples – known as the Prayers of Love and Faith or PLF. Prayers of Love and Faith are now in use as part of regular Church of England services but the House of Bishops confirmed last month that standalone or 'bespoke' services for same-sex couples would need full formal authorisation under canon law.

LLF has proved very divisive for some and so the LLF project was brought to a close and a new Relationships, Sexuality and Gender Working Group will be created look at how bespoke services could become a reality as well as exploring what legislation would be needed to license or ordain same-sex married clergy. There will also be a Sexuality and Gender Pastoral Consultative Group to give pastoral advice to bishops and archdeacons on specific cases in the interim and facilitate consistent practice across the Church.

Leading Prayers

Alicia was also part of the team from the Diocese of Derby who led the worship for Monday evening – leading intercessions, Alicia prayed for courage and stamina for all involved at Synod!

And with thanks to all of you back who prayed for Synod and all involved, it was a huge encouragement.

News from Littleover

Littleover in Bloom

Look out for our plant sale Sat 14 March, on the corner of the Half Moon car park by the Co-op. Since, this area is notoriously well known for flooding, we will find a dry spot to sell our plants, in time for Mothering Sunday the next day. Please support us, the funds go towards buying plants and compost for the barrier baskets and planters in the village.

At this time of the year we appeal to the local businesses, we are very grateful for their support, they have not usually let us down, and have been very generous in the past, despite the cost of living increases. We are just a group of local volunteers, hoping to make Littleover a nicer place to live and shop.

Our next meeting will be Monday 9 March 1.30pm. Anyone is welcome to join us. Littleover Grange Hall, rear entrance, Park Lane. Contact Jan on 01332 348903 or jan.dante@virgin.net

A new community centre opened a month ago, on King George V Playing Fields. The newly refurbished centre was renamed, King George V Community Centre, made possible with the help and support of NTC Derby.

After the death of King George V in 1936 a National Memorial Fund and, 'Grant in Aid Trust', was set up to secure a living memorial to the late King, in the way of playing fields. There were many all over the country.

The King George V Fields in Littleover, were officially opened in 1952 by Victor Cavendish. The Duke of Devonshire. Later in the year, gates were installed, these were officially opened by, Sir Ian Walker, Lord Lieutenant of Derbyshire. Trees were also planted by children from the Parish.

Online safety, fraud and scams

Sam, who works for Derbyshire Police and lives in Littleover is coming to offer advice and support for those of us concerned about online safety, fraud and scams. This can include anything online, via our phones or on the doorstep. She will be with Knit and Natter on Wed 18 March at 2pm in the Hub and also after our service of Holy Communion at 11.15am on Wednesday 25 March, for about 15 minutes. She's very friendly and just wants to offer some sensible advice for those of us who are older and might feel vulnerable.

Mothering Sunday 15 March 10am

This is on Sunday 15 March and will be celebrated at an All Age service in church at 10am. Over the years, the gentlemen of the church would gather the day before to make up the posies. This year we would like them to do that on the Sunday, together with the children in the congregation, so it is something that can be learned together. Always good to pass things on to the next generation!

No Street Fair this year

St Peter's Junior School PTFA have opted for a smaller school fair on their playground this year, so there will be no joint Street Fair between church and school as in recent years.

Supporting persecuted Christians Iran's grief through the eyes of a pastor

Pastor Peyman partners with Open Doors to support believers within Iran through an online ministry. In even just one short call, he paints a picture of the heavy suffering borne by our brothers and sisters in Iran at this time.

As the internet continues to be restored in patches, more of the current situation in Iran has been revealed to the world beyond its borders. Pastor Peyman is a local partner of Open Doors who disciples Iranian Christian refugees through an online ministry. He was able to share a short update concerning the experience of Christians and the suffering that is now commonplace since the crackdown on protests earlier in the year.

We are receiving calls from inside Iran, and everyone is crying,” Peyman begins. “This is no longer about one isolated incident; it is deep and ongoing pain. Many have lost close friends and family members. Even among believers we personally knew and disciplined, several have been killed.

In one city alone, five believers lost their lives.” When information does eventually come through, it only reaches community leaders through trusted sources. Direct contact with grieving families is often impossible. “We cannot even reach some families to comfort them or pray with them. People are afraid to speak openly. We only know that some have died, and many others are deeply broken emotionally and spiritually,” Peyman says.

The burden on leaders is great as they struggle to wisely guide believers in their care. “Anything we say is misunderstood by someone. If we speak about hope, people get angry. If we speak about love, they say it is unrealistic. Leaders are under intense pressure, caught between the truth of God’s Word and the deep wounds people are carrying.”

He emphasises the urgent need for prayer for church leaders in Iran: “Pastors and leaders are standing in an extremely sensitive place. We must speak truth, but we also need God’s wisdom, timing and protection over our hearts and minds.”

Despite the despair and darkness many feel, Peyman believes that Iran has passed a point of no return – and this is a good thing. “Everything has changed. Iran will not remain the same. Each person, and the church, must understand their role in this moment: standing against injustice without being consumed by destructive anger.”

He and all Iranian believers call for your prayers. “Please pray for those who are grieving, for those who are traumatised, for safe ways to help, and especially for pastors and leaders. Silence in the face of injustice is wrong, but we must also walk wisely. We need God’s guidance today more than ever.”

“We must speak truth, but we also need God’s wisdom.”

Pastor Peyman

Please pray

- That the God of justice would expose evil, end injustice and bring accountability where there has been silence
- For the protection and wisdom of believers, that the Lord would help them discern how to be salt and light in dark times
- That God would reveal Himself as the God of truth and resurrection life, bringing hope to His people.

Church Home Groups

Home Groups are an opportunity to meet with a small group of people, in someone's home, to look at the Bible, pray, share, learn and grow together. Responsibilities are shared and members support one another as part of growing in discipleship and fellowship. If you'd like to join a group, please speak to Alicia on 01332 767802 or contact a leader directly.

Being part of St Peter's

Our Church Family is a crucial part of our life here at St Peter's – with Jesus at the centre.

And we hope that everyone will find a way to serve the church with their time, skills and finances. Join us for worship in person or online on a Sunday, or midweek in person. That you will offer your time and expertise to bless the wider life of the church, by being part of a home group, helping out with our many different ministries, or if your health keeps you at home, praying for all that goes on.

We prefer not to ask for volunteers but rather offer what you can so that all the tasks are shared and we are not expecting just a few people to do everything. Have a chat with someone about how you could help – it's often easier to start alongside someone you know.

Special Occasions

Baptism or Thanksgiving

Please see our special booklet on the website or contact the church office for a copy 01332 767802.

We want to get to know you before booking a date, so we look forward to meeting you in church.

Marriage and Banns

Congratulations! You can get married at St Peter's if you have a qualifying connection to the church. For more information call the office, look at the church website or take a look at www.yourchurchwedding.org We are happy to talk about dates, including midweek weddings.

Funerals

Arrangements are normally made through your funeral director and it doesn't have to be in church, we are happy to take services at the crematorium or local municipal cemeteries.

Churchyard

There are no longer any new grave spaces but you can still bury ashes in the Garden of Remembrance if the deceased lived in the parish. No memorials are permitted in the GOR but an entry will be made in the Book of Remembrance in church. Please inform your funeral director as early as possible of your wishes. Please be aware the maintenance of the churchyard is done by volunteers and Community Payback teams. You are welcome to care for your own area.
